

Haison help our customers to streamline the key processes of supply chain management to provide a user-friendly procurement system that

- Source out the best suitable equipments for the system (Compliance)
- Cost Analysis
- Multi Vendors quotations

The solution will be fully costed providing a single price for the complete system.

Every project is treated as a one off, designing solutions to align properly with the customer's operational aims and objectives.

It is a nature of a System Integration Project to have various and different type of products from different suppliers. We could provide most of the following products but not limited to that depending on the scope of work and the customer's preference.

- DCS/ SCADA/ Controllers/ Computers/ Control Power Distribution
- Operator Interface Stations, Electrical Devices / Sensors / Field Instruments
- Networking Components, Signal Conditioning and Isolation Components
- Hazardous Area Safety Device, Power Distribution System, Control Panels
- Control Valves, Emergency Shutdown Valves, Offshore Choke and safety valves
- Automatic Tank Gauging System: Servo, Radar, Mechanical, Fuels Inventory Management and Terminal Automation System

In case you need any particular products that are not listed above, please feel free to contact us and we could out source for you from our extensive network of associates locally and globally.